I understand that enrollment is for the entire time period specified and understand that a spot has been reserved in the selected classes on my behalf. I accept responsibility for the entire amount due, regardless of attendance. I understand that all tuition is non-refundable unless cancellations are made by Mohler Dance Academy. I understand that schedule adjustments may be necessary if class minimums are not met. I understand the natural risks involved with participation in any physical activity and I release Mohler Dance Academy and its teachers from all liability. I agree to hold harmless Mohler Dance Academy, or any affiliates associated with the studio, for any damage/illness/injury incurred during participation in class or event sponsored by Mohler Dance Academy. I understand that correct physical placement and body alignment are necessary in order for movement to be properly executed. I understand and agree that instructors may need to touch my child within a class setting for correctional purposes. I authorize Mohler Dance Academy the unrestricted right to use and publish photographs or video footage of myself or my child for promotional use, editorial and advertising for Mohler Dance Academy print, projects, brochures, press and website. I also understand compensation will not be received for use of said materials. I have also read, understand and agree to the policies of this school as described in the Student/Parent Handbook.
